

NOTICE OF ESTABLISHMENT OF EDUCATION PROGRAM IN FAMILY LAW CASES FOR SELF-REPRESENTED (PRO-SE) LITIGANTS

Pursuant to Administrative Order #04-13, Self-Represented (Pro-Se) litigants are strongly urged to attend an educational family law self-help program established in the Eighteenth Judicial Court for all self represented litigants in family law actions concerning issues of shared parental responsibility, child residency, child support, payment of alimony, child visitation, distribution of property, modification and enforcement of similar orders and any other domestic disputes including motions for temporary relief, effective immediately

Self represented litigants are strongly urged to attend and complete an approved self help family education program within sixty (60) days of service of the petition upon the respondent, or prior to scheduling mediation or a temporary relief matter, whichever is earlier.

Agencies approved by the court for providing such education are:
